Canada is receiving nearly 1,000 people a day, on an average ; and the majority of these come from parishes at home of the kind to which the A.C.S. sends its additional clergy. For the sake of Canada we should help those Societies which send clergy out for colonial work, and we should also support the A.C.S. which helps to Christianise the emigrants before they leave the Home Country.

10,000 Souls each Fortnight are added to the people of England and Wales. The result is seen in the rapid growth of new districts on the outskirts of great cities, and in the collieries and other industrial centres in the provinces.

The help of the A.C.S. is given to more than 1,000 parishes to assist in maintaining additional clergy. The Christian work in these parishes touches more than seven millions of people.

Gifts for Home Missions may be sent to Canon Petit, 39, Victoria Street, S.W. Anonymous Donations may be paid into Coutts' Bank, 440, Strand, London, W.C. Cheques should be crossed "for account of Additional Curates Society."

CHURCH MISSIONARY SOCIETY.

ITS CONSTITUTION.

The Society was founded in 1799 and is, as its title implies, an Association of Members of the Church of England. His Grace the Archbishop of Canterbury is Vice-Patron, and the Vice-Presidents include seven Archbishops, 134 Bishops, nineteen other Church Dignitaries, and forty prominent Lay Churchmen.

ITS OPERATIONS

Are conducted in the following countries, where, in the providence of God, it has been instrumental in founding and building up Native Churches, and in largely extending the Episcopate, and it is at present responsible for the entire support of seventeen Bishops. In Africa the Society works in four of the dioceses north of the self-governing Colonies, and also in the diocese of Mauritius. In India there are ten dioceses, and the Church Missionary Society has work in nine. In Japan it works in four out of the six dioceses. In China it is the only Church Society in four of the six dioceses. In Canada, it has work in ten out of the thirteen dioceses, and supports six of the Bishops. Work is also carried on in Palestine and Egypt which come within the jurisdiction of the Bishop of the Church of England in Jerusalem, and also in Persia and Turkish Arabia, which are outside all existing Episcopal spheres.

ITS METHODS

Of work are very varied; they comprise the following: Evangelistic, Pastoral, Educational, Industrial, Translational, Medical, Organisation of Native Churches, &c.

ITS STAFF

Consists of 1,391 European Missionaries: of these 421 are Clergy, 56 Male Doctors, 22 Lady Doctors, 101 Laymen, 434 single Ladies. There are also 390 Native Clergy, 6,173 Native Lay Workers, and 1,975 Native Female Workers.

RESULTS.

The native Christian adherents connected with the Society number 344,760. There are 96,960 Communicants. During 1907 there were 23,138 baptisms in the Missions. In the Society's Mission hospitals 25,902 in-patients were received, and 1,067,712 out-patients were treated.

MEMBERS OF THE CONGRESS

Are cordially invited to co-operate with the Society in furthering these efforts for the extension of the Master's Kingdom. A constantly expanding income is needed to maintain existing work and meet the appeals for extension from all parts of the mission-field. At the present time there are unique opportunities in China and Japan.

ANNUAL SUBSCRIBERS of a Guinea, or if Clergymen, of Half-a-Guinea, and Collectors of a Guinea per annum, are MEMBERS OF THE SOCIETY. Donors of Ten Guineas are Members for Life. Annual Subscribers of Five Guineas, and Donors of £50 are Governors.

THE SECRETARIES will be glad at all times either to answer inquiries or give further particulars regarding the Society's work.

THE ARCHBISHOP OF CANTERBURY, speaking of the Church in the very way in which service is at present most sorely called for."

THE ARCHBISHOP OF YORK says that the A.C.S. is "the most urgently necessary of all the Societies that are working in connection with the Church, because in some measure all others depend upon it."

Home Missions of the Church

39, VICTORIA STREET, WESTMINSTER.

To Provide Clergy for Poor Parishes.

In the Colonies, in newly developing districts, the strength of Church life depends greatly on the vigour of Church work in crowded English parishes.

Canada is receiving nearly 1,000 people a day on an average; and the majority of these come from parishes at home of the kind to which the A.C.S. sends its additional clergy. For the sake of Canada we should help those Societies which send clergy out for colonial work, and we should also support the A.C.S. which helps to Christianise the emigrants before they leave the Home Country.

OFFICIAL HANDBOOK OF
THE PAN-ANGLICAN CONGRESS
LONDON

JUNE 15-24, 1908

HANDBOOKS OF ENGLISH CHURCH EXPANSION.

Each volume relates to a definite area of the Church's Missionary Work, and aims at providing a concise but lucid and interesting account of its scope and distinctive features, and take the form not so much of text-books as of monographs, and are designed to meet the needs of the general reader rather than those of the missionary student.

Edited by the Rev. Canon Dodson, M.A., Principal of St. Paul's Missionary College, Burgh, and the Rev. Canon Bullock-Webster, M.A., Hon. Canon of Ely Cathedral. With a General Preface by the Bishop of St. Albans.

Each book contains about 200 pages, with Map and Illustrations. Cloth, 2s. net each.

JAPAN. By Mrs. EDWARD BICKERSTETH.

WESTERN CANADA. By the Rev. Canon NORMAN TUCKER, M.A., D.C.L., Toronto, General Secretary of the Missionary Society of the Church of England in Canada.

CHINA. By the Rev. F. L. NORRIS, M.A., of the Church of England Mission, Peking.

AUSTRALIA. By the Rev. A. E. DAVID, sometime Archdeacon of Brisbane.

SOUTH AFRICA. By the Right Rev. Bishop HAMILTON BAYNES, D.D., sometime Bishop of Natal.

NORTH INDIA. By the Rev. C. F. ANDREWS, M.A., Fellow of Pembroke College, Cambridge, and Member of the Cambridge Mission to Delhi.

"A very useful series of introductory handbooks to the work of the Church of England in the Colonies and Foreign Mission Field."—East and West.

"The format of the series is excellent, neat, artistic, and convenient to handle; the Maps and Illustrations are well chosen and well produced. . . . The contents deserve equally high praise, they present the work of experts, they are also marvels of lucid condensation. . . . If the remainder of the series can be maintained at this high level of efficiency and interest the success of this series, which fills a serious gap in the literature of the Church, is assured."—Guardian.

"One cannot speak too highly of the new series of 'Handbooks of English Church Expansion.'"—Scottish Chronicle.

"We welcome and wish every success to this series."—Church Times.

HISTORY AND SCOPE OF THE PAN-ANGLICAN CONGRESS.

THE first allusion to a Congress of the whole Anglican Communion occurs in a sermon at St. Paul's Cathedral, London, in the spring of 1902. The subject was then brought before the Boards of Missions of Canterbury and York, who, after consulting in a special degree the Archbishop of Canterbury, addressed a letter on December 15, 1902, to the Archbishops and Bishops of the Anglican Communion throughout the world setting forth the scheme of a Pan-Anglican Congress in close proximity to the next Lambeth Conference of Bishops, coupling with the Congress a proposal for a Thankoffering in St. Paul's Cathedral. Some seventy answers were received, no part of the world being unrepresented, and these answers were almost unanimous in approving the scheme. The Boards of Missions then assumed the responsibility of launching it. Their next step was to write again to the whole Episcopate of the Anglican Communion on May 28, 1903, announcing their determination to hold the Congress, 'dealing with missionary and other questions affecting the extension of the Redeemer's kingdom throughout the world.' They also announced their intention of preparing for a Thankoffering at St. Paul's. In September, 1903, another important letter was sent round the world giving the first outlines of the scheme, some of these being in a sense unique. For example, it was at once determined to utilise the whole of the five years preceding the Congress for the purpose of preparation and to induce Churchmen to study as fully as possible all questions which eventually would be discussed at the Congress. The Congress itself was to be held just before the Lambeth Conference of Bishops, and to conclude with the Thankoffering. Secretaries were to be appointed in all dioceses, and Bishop Montgomery and Mr. Eugene Stock were appointed Honorary Secretaries of the Congress. But perhaps the most important part of this letter was the insertion in it of three questions, with a request for answers after consultation with diocesan synods and councils. Briefly, the questions were as follows : (1) What are the questions of supreme importance for the Church of God in your own regions ? (2) What questions outside your own regions are of first importance ? (3) What is the corporate duty of the whole Anglican Communion, acting as one, at this time ?

One important point will be noted. All letters have been addressed from the first to the Anglican Episcopate, or to those delegated by them and their Synods to receive such communications. In a word the movement has all along been diocesan. No communication has ever been made to societies of any kind. The diocesan unit has been safeguarded from the commencement.

In May, 1904, a further communication was sent round the world in relation to the Thankoffering. The date of it was fixed for St. John Baptist's Day, June 24, 1908, in St. Paul's Cathedral. It was to be a Thankoffering to Almighty God for blessings vouchsafed to the Anglican Communion in its growth and spiritual development in all parts of the world. The principle of the Thankoffering also was settled. The fullest liberty was given

'(1) To each part of the Anglican Communion acting in its own region in its corporate capacity, to earmark its offering for any purpose whatsoever, whether in its own regions or elsewhere, care being taken that the object or objects be worthy of so solemn an occasion and of the first importance to the Church in that or in some other region. (2) That in order to secure this end with greater certainty, no object for the Thankoffering of any particular region be chosen except such as shall have been approved by the authorities of the Church in that region, acting through its provincial synods where such exist, or failing such, by the bishops of the region in question acting together, the general aim being to provide for the paramount needs of great regions rather than the immediate and local needs of particular dioceses. (3) That if, as it is hoped, large sums be offered which have not been earmarked, these shall be distributed by some leading authority, such as the Primates, Metropolitans or Presiding Bishops, who will be assembled at the Lambeth Conference, or by a Committee of the Lambeth Conference.'

It may be stated at once that in due course it was resolved that the unappropriated money should be distributed by a Committee to be appointed by the Lambeth Conference, but not necessarily to be composed of bishops. As a matter of fact we believe that the Committee will be made as representative as possible. Not only is every continent sure to be represented on such a Committee, but we cannot doubt that bishops, clergy, laymen and women are likely to form the component parts, so that it will be impossible to speak of a packed or a sectional body.

But we must return to the history of the three questions and their outcome. In due time answers came from all parts of the world; and again no part of the world was unrepresented. It is remarkable that the first answers came from the Arctic regions, from Bishop Bompas. As a rule, the purely missionary dioceses, and those with the smallest staff of clergy, were first in the field. The large centres were last: this was to be expected and it was natural. It was also natural that the questions should take some time to answer, since the request had been made that they might embody the opinion of diocesan assemblies. It will have been guessed also that the two first questions were much more fully dealt with than the third. It is almost true to say indeed, that the third question still awaits its true answer. This again is natural: and we have come to believe that the great purpose of the Congress is really to give that answer.

The next step that was taken was to print all the answers from dioceses in extenso so far as it was possible, to comment on them, to focus attention upon the significance of certain groups of answers, and to remit the pamphlet to all dioceses with a request that they should carefully read the opinions expressed by Churchmen from every part of the world relating to our common Church life and to revise the answers already given in the light of fresh knowledge. Many revised judgments were in due course received, and it will be of extreme interest to many to be told that no fresh answer was really evoked; but it is true that some previous opinions were more strongly emphasised.

Finally, twelve subjects were chosen from the mass of information received, as representing the most important problems in the eyes of the whole Church, and special attention was paid in this choice to the needs and wishes of provinces and dioceses outside the British Isles. It is moreover interesting to know that when these subjects had been selected in the manner specified they were found to coincide entirely with the needs and wishes of the Church in its old home.

These subjects so chosen were now again relegated to all dioceses throughout the world for a final opinion before the Congress Committee fixed the programme of the Congress. If this recitation of the steps taken is wearisome, the excuse must be that it is important to point out to all that every care has been taken to make this Congress as democratic, in the true sense of that word, as possible. No subject has been forced upon the Congress, All of it is the outcome of a general opinion. There has been no wilfulness at the centre, and the unanimity has been remarkable.

We turn now to the Committee of the Congress. The Boards of Missions at once came to the conclusion that this venture was upon far too large a scale to be placed in the hands of a sub-committee. Very wisely, then, they took the boldest step, and, having appointed a representative Committee, they gave them power to add to their number and to take any step they chose in any direction. The Committee henceforth became responsible for the Congress in every sense, financial and executive. Without doubt the Committee of the Congress must be credited with faith, for they were now committed to a scheme that might cost 10,000*l*. Yet no guarantee had been raised ; there was at that time no certain scheme for raising one ; but in faith the Committee went forward. They had the good fortune to obtain the Bishop of St. Albans as their chairman, and they at once began to add representative Churchmen to their numbers, restricting their choice naturally at first to the vicinity of London, since it was necessary that the Committee should meet frequently and be a united body. It may be said here that the meetings have been delightful in tone. Of course no one has dreamt of party feelings, the cause was far too great for that. Extraordinary and sustained interest has been shown throughout, and there has ever been evident a sense of humour which has brightened the proceedings, especially when any one could be caught tripping in a statement. It was my part to afford merriment on one occasion when in attempting to say that the section for 'the Anglican Communion' must have an 'evening meeting,' I blundered into saying 'We must have an Evening Communion.' But the sentence that lives most in my memory is the attempt of a prominent member to define the position of the aborigines of Australia, and when the definition was, 'Black settlers in a white man's country,' we felt we had food for laughter for many days. It matters not what was meant. After some four years it became evident that the work could not be performed by honorary secretaries, not even when Canon Stuart took Mr. Stock's place; and none too soon, the Rev. A. B. Mynors, late General Secretary of the Junior Clergy Missionary Associations (S.P.G.) and rector of a parish in the Diocese of Bristol, was permitted by his bishop to become full secretary to our very great profit. One room was at first taken at the Church House, and some of us remember with laughter the first meeting in it when we sat upon packing cases and awaited our Secretary, who had missed his train. The one room has become ten, and the staff numbers about twenty. A Guarantee Fund was raised as one of the first acts of the enlarged Committee. The Dioceses in the Provinces of Canterbury and York, that is, of the Church of England proper, were asked to guarantee 250*l.* each in case of a deficit; the general idea being that the Mother Church was inviting sons and grandsons to her shores and desired to be in some sense the host. The Dioceses responded nobly, although they did not know whether the Congress would really strike the imagination of the Anglican Communion and thus become able to pay for its own expenses. Happily that fear has passed away. But it may not be amiss to recall a still earlier position of affairs when the small Committee that was first appointed were compelled to put their hands in their pockets and pay their postage and other expenses and to borrow from the Boards of Missions on their own responsibility. We only mention it in order to show how far we have travelled by the mercy of God since those days.

It is ancient history now to recount how the scheme of the Congress has developed till it has become seven or eight Congresses, each with its Secretary and Committee. It is also interesting to note how the questions to be discussed have themselves grown in the estimation of Churchmen. The Social problems of the day hold first place easily, and by the wish of all parts of the world. The problems of Thought, of the faith as face to face with doubt and perplexity, rank second; then the others come more or less in a group. The women members of the Congress Committee also remind us that we did not discover the existence of women for some three years or more; they also assert that they have done more to spread knowledge of the Congress and to stimulate study of the subjects, since they were discovered, than anyone else. Be it so. It is now by the aid of both sexes, of every section of the Church, by thinkers of all shades of opinion, that the Congress is being organised.

Our perplexities now consist of bewilderment in regard to the numbers that desire to attend the meetings and the great services, and in regard to hospitality. We are also a little anxious lest the note of self-satisfaction should be sounded by any Churchmen. We have not met to glorify ourselves or to look with satisfaction upon the past. If we take the whole world within our survey we are but a small body even among English-speaking Christians. It is our duty to humble ourselves first and foremost, for our manifold omissions of duty, of opportunities let slip, for our shortness of vision, our many divisions within the Church, for our coldness in missionary effort and our neglect of duty to our neighbours, to the poor and helpless at home. All will be glad to note that the feeling of humiliation is characteristic of the services in connection with the Congress. We have indeed cause for abundant and overwhelming thankfulness, but not for self-glory; God has blessed us far above our deserts in spite of our sins and shortcomings, and it is just and right that we should conclude our Congress with a Thankoffering.

The trembling hopes of five years ago seem about to be fulfilled to a degree not dreamt of then. We now humbly pray that the Congress may become a great instrument for a deeper faith and an enormously increased energy on behalf of the Anglican Communion for the cause of God, and therefore for the sake of mankind throughout the world. It may be that the place of this Anglican Communion of ours in the world, and as a world force for good, may be made more plain to us as a basis for effort in the coming centuries.

H. H. MONTGOMERY (Bishop),
One of the Honorary Secretaries.

GENERAL DIRECTIONS

Reduced Railway Fares.

THE principal railway companies in England, Scotland and Wales have agreed to issue return tickets at a single fare and a quarter to those attending the Congress on a voucher, which is being sent to every member and delegate, being presented to the clerk at the station at the time of booking. The tickets will be issued from Saturday, JUNE 13, and will be available to return till JUNE 25. They have also arranged to issue tickets at a single fare and a quarter (minimum 1s.) for the double journey between the places where visitors shall be residing during the Congress and the nearest station to the places where the meetings are being held, providing the distance be not more than FIFTY miles.

PRAYERS.

PREFATORY NOTE

It is of supreme concern that each day's work be commended to God with all the earnestness and pains and care at our command; the following rules will therefore be observed.

The devotions will be said all standing in a position of devout attention.

The first half-minute will be spent in silence, that fixed attention and concentration may be gained.

The CREED and THE LORD'S PRAYER will be said in measured tones with a slight pause between each clause.

The leader will make a short pause after "I believe" and "Our Father," to enable all to take up the words.

It should be remembered that all must join with audible, clear, and hearty voice in those parts which belong to all. United prayer leads to a united spirit.

A half-minute's pause will follow the final prayer, that each may make a silent act of devotion to God before sitting down.

PRAYERS

LET us hear the Word of God spoken by

Tuesday . . .	Isaiah ii. 1-6.
Wednesday . . .	1 Corinthians xii. 4-14.
Thursday . . .	Ephesians i. 15-end.
Friday . . .	Isaiah xi. 1-10.
Saturday . . .	Colossians i. 9-19.
Monday . . .	Revelation xxi. 1-8.

or any of the following :

Isaiah xlix. 13-19.

„ lxii. 1-8.

Ephesians iv. 7-17.

1 Peter i. 13-22.

„ ii. 1-11.

Let us join in the confession of our Holy Faith.

THE CREED

LET us invoke the presence and guidance of God the Holy Ghost in this day's deliberations.

Then one or more of the following prayers.

GOD, who didst teach the hearts of Thy faithful people, by the sending to them the light of Thy Holy Spirit ; Grant us by the same Spirit to have a right judgment in all things, and evermore to rejoice in His holy comfort ; through the merits of Christ Jesus our Saviour, who liveth and reigneth with Thee, in the unity of the same Spirit, one God world without end. Amen.

2

O GOD, forasmuch as without Thee we are not able to please Thee ; Mercifully grant that Thy Holy Spirit may in all things direct and rule our hearts ; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

3

STRENGTHEN us, we beseech thee, O Lord, with the Holy Ghost the Comforter, and daily increase in us Thy manifold gifts of grace ; the spirit of wisdom and understanding ; the spirit of counsel and ghostly strength ; the spirit of knowledge and true godliness ; and fill us, O Lord, with the spirit of Thy holy fear, now and for ever. Amen.

ALMIGHTY and everlasting God, by whose Spirit the whole body of the Church is governed and sanctified ; Receive our supplications and prayers, which we offer before Thee for all estates of men in Thy Holy Church, that every member of the same, in his vocation and ministry, may truly and godly serve Thee ; through our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. Amen.

Let us commend to the favour and blessing of God this Congress.

WE make our humble supplication, Most Merciful Lord, that it may please Thee to bless the Congress now gathered in Thy name ; beseeching Thee to use it for the advancement of Thy Glory, the establishment of Thy Kingdom, and the unity and progress of Thy Holy Church throughout the world ; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

or

O ALMIGHTY GOD, pour forth, we beseech Thee, Thy Holy Spirit upon Thy servants gathered from many lands for counsel and mutual help in the work of Thy Holy Church. Grant unto us abundance of wisdom and of zeal, that we may both know Thy will and fulfil it with all our power, to the advancement of Thy Kingdom and the blessing of all mankind, through our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. Amen.

Let us unite in saying the Lord's Prayer.

Our Father . . . for ever and ever. Amen.

LET the words of our mouths and the meditations of our hearts be alway acceptable in Thy sight, O Lord our Strength and our Redeemer. Amen.

1

ALL people that on earth do dwell,
Sing to the Lord with cheerful voice ;

Him serve with fear, His praise forth tell,
Come ye before Him, and rejoice.

The Lord, ye know, is God indeed ;
Without our aid He did us make ;
We are His flock, He doth us feed ;
And for His sheep He doth us take.

O enter then His gates with praise,
Approach with joy His courts unto ;
Praise, laud, and bless His Name always,
For it is seemly so to do.

For why ? the Lord our God is good ;
His mercy is for ever sure ;
His truth at all times firmly stood,
And shall from age to age endure.

To Father, Son, and Holy Ghost,
The God whom heaven and earth adore,
From men and from the Angel-host
Be praise and glory evermore.

Amen.

2

ALL hail the power of Jesu's Name !
Let angels prostrate fall ;
Bring forth the royal diadem,
And crown Him, Lord of all.

Crown Him, ye martyrs of our God,
Who from His altar call ;
Extol the stem of Jesse's rod,
And crown Him, Lord of all.

Ye seed of Israel's chosen race,
Ye ransomed of the fall,
Hail Him Who saves you by His grace,
And crown Him, Lord of all.

Sinners, whose love can ne'er forget
The wormwood and the gall ;
Go, spread your trophies at His feet,
And crown Him, Lord of all.

Let every kindred, every tribe,
On this terrestrial ball,
To Him all majesty ascribe,
And crown Him, Lord of all.

Oh that with yonder sacred throng,
We at His feet may fall,
There join the everlasting song,
And crown Him, Lord of all.

Amen.

O GOD, our help in ages past,
Our hope for years to come,
Our shelter from the stormy blast,
And our eternal home ;

Beneath the shadow of Thy Throne
Thy Saints have dwelt secure ;
Sufficient is Thine Arm alone,
And our defence is sure.

Before the hills in order stood,
Or earth received her frame,
From everlasting Thou art God,
To endless years the Same.

A thousand ages in Thy sight
 Are like an evening gone ;
 Short as the watch that ends the night
 Before the rising sun.

Time, like an ever-rolling stream,
 Bears all its sons away ;
 They fly forgotten, as a dream
 Dies at the opening day.

O God, our help in ages past,
 Our hope for years to come,
 Be Thou our guard while troubles last,
 And our eternal home. Amen.

4

Now thank we all our God,
 With heart, and hands, and voices,
 Who wondrous things hath done,
 In Whom His world rejoices ;
 Who from our mother's arms
 Hath blessed us on our way
 With countless gifts of love,
 And still is ours to-day.

O may this bounteous God
 Through all our life be near us,
 With ever joyful hearts
 And blessed peace to cheer us ;
 And keep us in His grace,
 And guide us when perplex'd,
 And free us from all ills
 In this world and the next.

All praise and thanks to God
 The Father now be given,
 The Son, and Him Who reigns
 With Them in highest Heaven,

The One Eternal God,
 Whom earth and Heav'n adore,
 For thus it was, is now,
 And shall be evermore. Amen.

5

THE day Thou gavest, Lord, is ended,
 The darkness falls at Thy behest ;
 To Thee our morning hymns ascended,
 Thy praise shall sanctify our rest.

We thank Thee that Thy Church un-sleeping,
 While earth rolls onward into light,
 Through all the world her watch is keeping,
 And rests not now by day or night.

As o'er each continent and island
 The dawn leads on another day,
 The voice of prayer is never silent,
 Nor dies the strain of praise away.

The sun, that bids us rest, is waking
 Our brethren 'neath the western sky,
 And hour by hour fresh lips are making Thy wondrous doings heard on high.

So be it, Lord ; Thy throne shall never,
 Like earth's proud empires, pass away ;
 But stand, and rule, and grow for ever,
 Till all Thy creatures own Thy sway. Amen.

THE CHURCH

THE Church's one foundation
 Is Jesus Christ her Lord ;
 She is His new creation
 By water and the Word :
 From Heav'n He came and sought her
 To be His holy Bride ;
 With His own Blood He bought her,
 And for her life He died.

Elect from every nation,
 Yet one o'er all the earth,
 Her charter of salvation
 One Lord, one Faith, one Birth,
 One Holy Name she blesses,
 Partakes one Holy Food,
 And to one hope she presses
 With every grace endued.

Though with a scornful wonder
 Men see her sore opprest,
 By schisms rent asunder,
 By heresies distrust,
 Yet Saints their watch are keeping,
 Their cry goes up, ' How long ?'
 And soon the night of weeping
 Shall be the morn of song.

Mid toil, and tribulation,
 And tumult of her war,
 She waits the consummation
 Of peace for evermore ;
 Till with the vision glorious
 Her longing eyes are blest,
 And the great Church victorious
 Shall be the Church at rest.

Yet she on earth hath union
 With God the Threc in One,
 And mystic sweet communion
 With those whose rest is won :
 O happy ones and holy !
 Lord, give us grace that we,
 Like them the meek and lowly,
 On high may dwell with Thee.
 Amen.

7

To Thee our God we fly
 For mercy and for grace ;
 O hear our lowly cry,
 And hide not Thou Thy face.
 O Lord, stretch forth Thy mighty
 hand,
 And guard and bless our Fatherland.

Arise, O Lord of hosts,
 Be jealous for Thy Name,
 And drive from out our coasts
 The sins that put to shame.
 O Lord, stretch forth Thy mighty
 hand,
 And guard and bless our Fatherland.

Thy best gifts from on high
 In rich abundance pour,
 That we may magnify
 And praise Thee more and more.
 O Lord, stretch forth Thy mighty
 hand,
 And guard and bless our Fatherland.

The powers ordain'd by Thee
 With heavenly wisdom bless ;
 May they Thy servants be,
 And rule in righteousness.
 O Lord, stretch forth Thy mighty
 hand,
 And guard and bless our Fatherland.

The Church of Thy dear Son
 In flame with love's pure fire,
 Bind her once more in one,
 And life and truth inspire.
 O Lord, stretch forth Thy mighty
 hand,
 And guard and bless our Fatherland.

Though vile and worthless, still Thy people, Lord, are we ;
 And for our God we will
 None other have but Thee.
 O Lord, stretch forth Thy mighty
 hand,
 And guard and bless our Fatherland.
 Amen.

8

THY hand, O God, has guided Thy flock, from age to age ;
 The wondrous tale is written,
 Full clear, on every page ;
 Our fathers owned Thy goodness,
 And we their deeds record ;
 And both of this bear witness,
 One Church, one Faith, one Lord.

Thy heralds brought glad tidings
 To greatest, as to least ;
 They bade men rise, and hasten
 To share the great King's feast ;
 And this was all their teaching,
 In every deed and word,
 To all alike proclaiming
 One Church, one Faith, one Lord.

Through many a day of darkness,
 Through many a scene of strife,
 The faithful few fought bravely
 To guard the nation's life.
 Their Gospel of redemption,
 Sin pardoned, man restored,
 Was all in this enfolded,
 One Church, one Faith, one Lord.

And we, shall we be faithless ?
 Shall hearts fail, hands hang down ?
 Shall we evade the conflict,
 And cast away our crown ?
 Not so : in God's deep counsels
 Some better thing is stored ;
 We will maintain, unflinching,
 One Church, one Faith, one Lord.

Thy mercy will not fail us,
 Nor leave thy work undone ;
 With thy right hand to help us,
 The victory shall be won ;
 And then, by men and angels,
 Thy name shall be adored,
 And this shall be their anthem,
 ' One Church, one Faith, one
 Lord.' Amen.

9

LORD, Thy ransomed Church is waking
 Out of slumber far and near,
 Knowing that the morn is breaking
 When the Bridegroom shall appear ;
 Waking up to claim the treasure
 With Thy precious life-blood bought,
 And to trust in fuller measure
 All Thy wondrous death hath wrought.

Praise to Thee for this glad shower,
 Precious drops of latter rain ;
 Praise, that by Thy Spirit's power
 Thou hast quickened us again :
 That Thy Gospel's priceless treasure
 Now is borne from land to land,
 And that all the Father's pleasure
 Prospers in Thy pierced hand.

Praise to Thee for saved ones yearning
 O'er the lost and wandering throng ;
 Praise for voices daily learning
 To upraise the glad new song ;
 Praise to Thee for sick ones hasting
 Now to touch Thy garment's hem ;
 Praise for souls believing, tasting
 All Thy love has won for them.

Set on fire our heart's devotion
 With the love of Thy dear Name ;
 Till o'er every land and ocean Lips and lives Thy Cross proclaim :
 Fix our eyes on Thy returning,
 Keeping watch till Thou shalt come,
 Loins well girt, lamps brightly burning ;
 Then, Lord, take Thy servants home. Amen.

FROM Greenland's icy mountains,
 From India's coral strand,
 Where Afric's sunny fountains
 Roll down their golden sand,
 From many an ancient river,
 From many a palmy plain,
 They call us to deliver
 Their land from error's chain.

What though the spicy breezes
 Blow soft o'er Ceylon's isle,
 Though every prospect pleases,
 And only man is vile,
 In vain with lavish kindness
 The gifts of God are strown,
 The heathen in his blindness
 Bows down to wood and stone.

Can we, whose souls are lighted
 With wisdom from on high,
 Can we to men benighted
 The lamp of life deny ?
 Salvation ! oh, salvation !
 The joyful sound proclaim,
 Till each remotest nation
 Has learnt Messiah's Name.

Waft, waft, ye winds, His story,
 And you, ye waters, roll,
 Till, like a sea of glory,
 It spreads from pole to pole ;
 Till, o'er our ransomed nature,
 The Lamb for sinners slain,
 Redeemer, King, Creator,
 In bliss returns to reign.

Amen.

They preach His birth, His life, His cross,
 The love of His atonement,
 For Whom they count the world but loss,
 His Easter, His enthronement.

Hark, hark, the trump of Jubilee
 Proclaims to every nation,
 From pole to pole, by land and sea,
 Glad tidings of salvation :
 As nearer draws the day of doom,
 While still the battle rages,
 The heavenly Dayspring through the gloom
 Breaks on the night of ages.

Still on and on the anthems spread
 Of Hallelujah voices ;
 In concert with the holy dead
 The warrior Church rejoices ;
 Their snow-white robes are washed in blood,
 Their golden harps are ringing ;
 Earth and the Paradise of God
 One triumph-song are singing.

He comes, Whose Advent Trumpet drowns
 The last of Time's evangels, Emmanuel crowned with many crowns,
 The Lord of saints and angels :
 O Life, Light, Love, the great I AM,
 Triune, Who changest never,
 The throne of God and of the Lamb
 Is Thine, and Thine for ever !

Amen.

11

' FOR My sake and the Gospel's, go
 And tell Redemption's story ' ;
 His heralds answer, ' Be it so,
 And Thine, Lord, all the glory ! '

12

THY kingdom come. O God,
 Thy rule, O Christ, begin ;
 Break with Thine iron rod
 The tyrannies of sin.

Where is Thy reign of peace,
And purity, and love ?
When shall all hatred cease,
As in the realms above ?

When comes the promised time
That war shall be no more,
And lust, oppression, crime
Shall flee Thy Face before ?

We pray Thee, Lord, arise,
And come in Thy great might ;
Revive our longing eyes,
Which languish for Thy sight.

Men scorn Thy sacred Name,
And wolves devour Thy fold ;
By many deeds of shame
We learn that love grows cold.

O'er heathen lands afar
Thick darkness broodeth yet :
Arise, O morning Star,
Arise, and never set. Amen.

13

FLING out the banner ! Let it float
Skyward and seaward, high and wide ;
The sun that lights its shining folds,
The Cross on which the Saviour died.

Fling out the banner ! Angels bend
In anxious silence o'er the sign,
And vainly seek to comprehend
The wonders of the love divine.

Fling out the banner ! Heathen lands
Shall see from far the glorious sight,
And nations, crowding to be born,
Baptize their spirits in its light.

Fling out the banner ! Sin-sick souls,
That sink and perish in the strife,
Shall touch in faith its radiant hem,
And spring immortal into life.

Fling out the banner ! Let it float
Skyward and seaward, high and
wide,
Our glory only in the Cross,
Our only hope the Crucified.

Fling out the banner ! wide and high,
Seaward and skyward let it shine :
Nor skill, nor might, nor merit ours :
We conquer only in that sign.
Amen.

14

JESUS shall reign where'er the sun
Doth his successive journeys run ;
His Kingdom stretch from shore to shore,
Till moons shall wax and wane no more.

People and realms of every tongue
Dwell on His love with sweetest song,
And infant voices shall proclaim
Their early blessings on His name.

Blessings abound where'er He reigns ;
The prisoner leaps to lose his chains ;
The weary find eternal rest,
And all the sons of want are blest.

Let every creature rise and bring Peculiar honours to our King ;
Angels descend with songs again,
And earth repeat the loud Amen.
Amen.

GOD is working His purpose out as year succeeds to year :
God is working His purpose out and the time is drawing near,— Nearer and nearer draws the time,
the time that shall surely be,
When the earth shall be filled with the glory of God, as the waters
cover the sea.

From utmost East to utmost West,
 where'er man's foot hath trod,
 By the mouth of many messengers goes forth the voice of God ;
 Give ear to Me, ye continents, ye isles, give ear to Me,
 That the earth may be filled with
 the glory of God, as the waters
 cover the sea.

What can we do to work God's work, to prosper and increase The brotherhood of all mankind, the reign of the Prince of Peace ?
 What can we do to hasten the time,—
 the time that shall surely be,
 When the earth shall be filled with
 the glory of God, as the waters
 cover the sea ?

March we forth in the strength of God with the banner of Christ
 unfurled,
 That the light of the glorious Gospel of truth may shine throughout the world ;
 Fight we the fight with sorrow and sin, to set their captives free,
 That the earth may be filled with
 the glory of God, as the waters
 cover the sea.

All we can do is nothing worth unless God blesses the deed ;
 Vainly we hope for the harvest-tide,
 till God gives life to the seed ;
 Yet nearer and nearer draws the time, the time that shall surely be,
 When the earth shall be filled with
 the glory of God, as the waters
 cover the sea. Amen.

THE MINISTRY

O THOU Who makest souls to shine
 With light from lighter worlds above,
 And droppest glistening dew Divine
 On all who seek a Saviour's love ;

Do Thou Thy benediction give
 On all who teach, on all who learn,
 That so Thy Church may holier live,
 And every lamp more brightly burn.

Give those, who teach, pure hearts and wise,
 Faith, hope, and love, all warm'd by prayer ;

Themselves first training for the skies,
 They best will raise their people there.

Give those, who learn, the willing ear,
 The spirit meek, the guileless mind ;
 Such gifts will make the lowliest here
 Far better than a kingdom find.

O bless the shepherd ; bless the sheep ;
 That guide and guided both be one,
 One in the faithful watch they keep,
 Until this hurrying life be done.

If thus, Good Lord, Thy grace be given,
 In Thee to live, in Thee to die,
 Before we upward pass to Heav'n,
 We taste our immortality.

Amen.

17

O LORD, Who in Thy love Divine
 Didst leave in heaven the ninety-nine,
 In pity for a world undone,
 And gav'st Thy life to save the one,
 And didst it on Thy shoulders bear
 In joy to heaven, receive our prayer.

Thou, Who the night in prayer didst spend,

And then Thy twelve Apostles send ;
 And bidd'st us pray the Harvest's
 Lord

To send forth sowers of Thy word,
 Hear, and Thy chosen servants bless
 With seven-fold gifts of holiness.

O Thou, Who didst at Pentecost
 Send down from Heaven the Holy Ghost,

That He might with Thy Church abide
For ever, to defend and guide ;
Illuminate and strengthen, Lord,
The Preachers of Thy holy word.

That which the Holy Scriptures teach,

That, and that only, may they preach ;

May they the true Foundation lay,
Build gold thereon, not wood or hay ;
And meekly preach, in days of strife,
The sermon of a holy life.

May they Thy word with boldness speak,

And bear with tenderness the weak ;
Not seeking their own things as best,
But what may edify the rest ;
With wisdom and simplicity,
And, most of all, with charity.

So may we, when our work is done,
Together stand before the throne ;
And joyful hearts and voices raise
In one united song of praise,
With all the bright celestial host,
To Father, Son, and Holy Ghost.

Amen.

ALMIGHTY GOD, Whose only Son
O'er sin and death the triumph won,
And ever lives to intercede
For souls who Thy sweet mercy need ;

In His dear Name to Thee we pray
For all who err and go astray,
For sinners, wheresoe'er they be,
Who do not serve and honour Thee.

There are who never yet have heard
The tidings of Thy blessed Word,
But still in heathen darkness dwell,
Without one thought of Heav'n or hell ;

And some within Thy sacred fold
To holy things are dead and cold,
And waste the precious hours of life
In selfish ease, or toil, or strife ;

And many a quicken'd soul within
There lurks the secret love of sin,
A wayward will, or anxious fears,
Or lingering taint of bygone years.

O give repentance true and deep
To all Thy lost and wandering sheep,
And kindle in their hearts the fire
Of holy love and pure desire.

That so from Angel-hosts above
May rise a sweeter song of love,
And we, with all the Blest, adore
Thy Name, O God, for evermore.

Amen.

19

SOLDIERS of the Cross, arise !

Gird you with your armour bright ;
Mighty are your enemies,
Hard the battle ye must fight.

O'er a faithless fallen world
Raise your banner in the sky ;
Let it float there wide unfurl'd ;
Bear it onward ; lift it high.

'Mid the homes of want and woe,
Strangers to the living word,
Let the Saviour's herald go,
Let the voice of hope be heard.

Where the shadows deepest lie,
Carry truth's unsullied ray ;
Where are crimes of blackest dye,
There the saving sign display.

To the weary and the worn
Tell of realms where sorrows cease,
To the outcast and forlorn
Speak of mercy and of peace.

Guard the helpless ; seek the stray'd ;
Comfort troubles, banish grief ;
In the might of God array'd,
Scatter sin and unbelief.

Be the banner still unfurl'd,
Still unsheathed the Spirit's sword,
Till the kingdoms of the world
Are the kingdom of the Lord.

Amen.

HUMAN SOCIETY

FIGHT the good fight with all thy might,
 Christ is thy Strength, and Christ thy Right ;
 Lay hold on life, and it shall be
 Thy joy and crown eternally.

Run the straight race through God's good grace,
 Lift up thine eyes, and seek His Face ;
 Life with its way before us lies,
 Christ is the path, and Christ the prize.

Cast care aside, lean on thy Guide ;
 His boundless mercy will provide ;
 Trust, and thy trusting soul shall prove
 Christ is its life, and Christ its love.

Faint not nor fear, His Arms are near,
 He changeth not, and thou art dear ;
 Only believe, and thou shalt see
 That Christ is all in all to thee.
 Amen.

21

SONS of Labour, be like Jesus,
 Undefiled, chaste, and pure ;
 And, though Satan tempt you sorely,
 By His grace you shall endure.
 Husband, father, son, and brother,
 Be ye gentle, just, and true—
 Be ye kind to one another,
 As the Lord is kind to you.

Sons of Labour, seek for Jesus,
 Where He tells you ye shall find,
 In the children, 'mid the mourners,
 In the sick, poor, lame, and blind—
 ' Search the Scriptures,' He entreats you,
 ' For of Me they testify ' ;
 Love His Altar, where He meets you,
 Saying, ' Fear not—It is I.'

Sons of Labour, go to Jesus,
 In your sorrow, shame, and loss ;
 He is nearest, you are dearest,
 When you bravely bear His Cross
 Go to Him, Who died to save you,
 And is still the sinner's Friend ;
 And the great love, which forgave you
 Will forgive you to the end.

Sons of Labour, live for Jesus,
 Be your work your worship too ;
 In His Name, and to His glory,
 Do whate'er you find to do ;
 Till this night of sin and sorrow
 Be for ever overpast,
 And we see the golden morrow,
 Home with Jesus, home at last !
 Amen.

22

SWEET Saviour, bless us ere we go ;
 Thy Word into our minds instil,
 And make our lukewarm hearts to glow
 With lowly love and fervent will.
 Through life's long day and death's
 dark night,
 O gentle Jesus, be our Light.

The day is gone, its hours have run,
 And Thou hast taken count of all,
 The scanty triumphs grace hath won,
 The broken vow, the frequent fall.
 Through life's long day and death's
 dark night,
 O gentle Jesus, be our Light.

Grant us, dear Lord, from evil ways
 True absolution and release ;
 And bless us, more than in past days,
 With purity and inward peace.
 Through life's long day and death's
 dark night,
 O gentle Jesus, be our Light.

Do more than pardon ; give us joy,
 Sweet fear, and sober liberty,
 And simple hearts without alloy
 That only long to be like Thee.
 Through life's long day and death's
 dark night,
 O gentle Jesus, be our Light.

For all we love, the poor, the sad,
 The sinful, unto Thee we call ;
 O let Thy mercy make us glad :
 Thou art our Jesus, and our Ail.
 Through life's long day and death's
 dark night,
 O gentle Jesus, be our Light. Amen.

MODERN THOUGHT

23

O LORD of hosts, all heaven possessing,
 Behold us from Thy sapphire throne,
 In doubt and darkness dimly guessing,
 We might Thy glory half have known ;
 But Thou in Christ hast made us
 Thine,
 And on us all Thy beauties shine.
 Illumine all, disciples, teachers,
 Thy law's deep wonders to unfold :
 With reverent hand let wisdom's preachers
 Bring forth their treasures, new and old ;
 Let oldest, youngest, find in Thee
 Of truth and love the boundless sea.
 Let faith still light the lamp of science,
 And knowledge pass from truth to truth,
 And wisdom, in its full reliance,
 Renew the primal awe of youth ;
 So holier, wiser, may we grow,
 As time's swift currents onward flow.
 Bind Thou our life in fullest union
 With all Thy Saints from sin set free ;
 Uphold us in that blest communion
 Of all Thy Saints on earth with Thee ;
 Keep Thou our souls, or there, or here,
 In mightiest love, that casts out fear. Amen.

24

THERE is a book, who runs may read,
 Which heavenly truth imparts,
 And all the lore its scholars need,
 Pure eyes and Christian hearts.

The works of God, above, below,
 Within us, and around,
 Are pages in that book, to show
 How God Himself is found.

The glorious sky, embracing all,
 Is like the Maker's love, Wherewith encompass'd, great and small
 In peace and order move.

The Moon above, the Church below,
 A wondrous race they run ;
 But all their radiance, all their glow,
 Each borrows of its Sun.

The Saviour lends the light and heat
 That crown His holy hill ;
 The Saints, like stars, around His seat
 Perform their courses still.

The dew of Heaven is like Thy grace,
 It steals in silence down ;
 But where it lights, the favour'd place
 By richest fruits is known.

One Name, above all glorious names,
 With its ten thousand tongues
 The everlasting sea proclaims, Echoing Angelic songs.

The raging fire, the roaring wind
 Thy boundless power display ;
 But in the gentler breeze we find
 Thy Spirit's viewless way.

Two worlds are ours ; 'tis only sin
 Forbids us to descry
 The mystic Heav'n and earth within,
 Plain as the sea and sky.

Thou, Who hast given me eyes to see
 And love this sight so fair,
 Give me a heart to find out Thee,
 And read Thee everywhere. Amen.

25

THROUGH the night of doubt and sorrow
 Onward goes the pilgrim band,
 Singing songs of expectation,
 Marching to the Promised Land.

Clear before us through the darkness
 Gleams and burns the guiding Light ;
 Brother clasps the hand of brother,
 Stepping fearless through the night.

One the Light of God's own Presence
 O'er His ransom'd people shed,
 Chasing far the gloom and terror,
 Brightening all the path we tread :

One the object of our journey,
 One the faith which never tires,
 One the earnest looking forward,
 One the hope our God inspires :

One the strain that lips of thousands
 Lift as from the heart of one ;
 One the conflict, one the peril,
 One the march in God begun :

One the gladness of rejoicing
 On the far eternal shore,
 Where the One Almighty Father
 Reigns in love for evermore.

Onward, therefore, pilgrim brothers,
 Onward with the Cross our aid ;
 Bear its shame, and fight its battle,
 Till we rest beneath its shade.

Soon shall come the great awaking,
 Soon the rending of the tomb ;
 Then the scattering of all shadows.
 And the end of toil and gloom.
 Amen.

DEVOTIONAL DAY

26

COME, Holy Ghost, our souls inspire,
 And lighten with celestial fire ;
 Thou the anointing Spirit art,
 Who dost Thy sevenfold gifts impart.

Thy blessed unction from above
 Is comfort, life, and fire of love ;
 Enable with perpetual light
 The dulness of our blinded sight ;

Anoint and cheer our soil'd face
 With the abundance of Thy grace :
 Keep far our foes, give peace at home ;
 Where Thou art Guide no ill can come.

Teach us to know the Father, Son,
 And Thee, of Both, to be but One ;
 That through the ages all along
 This may be our endless song,

Praise to Thy eternal merit,
 Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.
 Amen.

27

LORD, Thy Word abideth,
 And our footsteps guideth ;
 Who its truth believeth
 Light and joy receiveth.

When our foes are near us,
Then thy Word doth cheer us,
Word of consolation,
Message of salvation.

When the storms are o'er us,
And dark clouds before us,
Then its light directeth,
And our way protecteth.

Who can tell the pleasure,
Who recount the treasure
By Thy Word imparted
To the simple-hearted ?

Word of mercy, giving Succour to the living ;
Word of life, supplying Comfort to the dying !

O that we discerning
Its most holy learning,
Lord, may love and fear Thee,
Evermore be near Thee. Amen.

28

WHEN I survey the wondrous Cross
On which the Prince of Glory died
My richest gain I count but loss,
And pour contempt on all my pride.

Forbid it, Lord, that I should boast,
Save in the death of Christ my God ;
All the vain things that charm me most,
I sacrifice them to His blood.

See, from His head, His hands, His feet,
Sorrow and love flow mingled down ;
Did e'er such love and sorrow meet,
Or thorns compose so rich a crown ?

Were the whole realm of nature mine,
That were an offering far too
small ;

Love so amazing, so Divine,
Demands my soul, my life, my all.
Amen.

29

TAKE my life, and let it be Consecrated, Lord, to Thee ;
Take my moments and my days,
Let them flow in ceaseless praise.
Take my hands, and let them move
At the impulse of Thy love.
Take my feet, and let them be Swift and beautiful for Thee.

Take my voice, and let me sing
Always, only, for my King :
Take my lips, and let them be Filled with messages from Thee.
Take my silver and my gold ;
Not a mite would I withhold.
Take my intellect, and use
Every power as Thou shalt choose.

Take my will, and make it Thine :
It shall be no longer mine.
Take my heart ; it is Thine own ;
It shall be Thy royal throne.
Take my love ; my Lord, I pour
At Thy feet its treasure-store.
Take myself, and I will be Ever, only, all for Thee. Amen

Victrix delectatio (St. Augustine).

The steadfastness of your faith in Christ.—Col. ii. 5.

O LORD ! we thank Thee on this day
For the deep joy when many meet,
Brethren from Britains far away
Who find the old Church sweet.

There is the thrill well understood
When happy thousands kneel or stand,
When music makes the very wood
Tremble below our hand.

And as the prayer, or priest, love-lit,
Or creed that tells the Faith's old story
Speaks grandly out, Lo ! every whit
Of the great Church saith 'glory.'

And shall we deem that such a tide
Must ebb as far as it hath flowed—
Moments of rapture which denied
Had helped us on the road ;

Nay ! when the lark soars up and sings,
She seems to change her mind on high,
And dropping downward with poised wings
Lays all her music by.

Yet shall we doubt whate'er betide
She still has something for her part,
Something of that blue heaven to bide
In azure on her heart ?

Whatever fail, whatever pass
Two things she hath, above, below,
The dew so pure upon her grass,
The heaven that loves her so.

God's sweetness shall grow sweeter,
yes,
In hours like these we learn its might—

Give us, O God ! the steadfastness,
The Victory of delight. Amen.

And God said, Let there be light : and there was light.

GREAT Lord of wisdom, life and light,
Before the hills were founded,
Thy quickening breath dissolved the night
And stirred through deeps un-sounded.
Beneath Thy hand the formless earth
And ocean rolled asunder,
And in Thy likeness man had birth,
Thy crowning work and wonder.

Through that grey dawn Thou calledst him,
Untaught but not unheeding.
His feet were faint, his lamp was dim,
Yet Faith discerned Thy leading.
Age after age and line on line
Thy Book unfolded clearer,
Till, like a flush of morn divine,
Thy Son proclaimed Thee nearer.

His Word from East to slumbering
West

Went out for all creation ;
Our far-off islands woke and blest
Thy Name with adoration.

We kneel where our forefathers knelt,
They trode these courts before us ;
Unseen, though near, our hearts have felt

Their blessings wafted o'er us.

We thank Thee, Lord, for these our sires,

Whose faith, in power, out-welling,
Through flood, through field, through martyr fires,

Hath wrought by love compelling.

Still breathe on us, great Lord of morn,

That zeal of Saints and Sages ;
So tongues unheard and isles unborn Shall hymn Thy praise through ages.

We bless Thy Name for one and all,
Who founded for Thy glory
Each low-built shrine, each minster tall,

To teach mankind Thy story.
May we, their sons, our lamp display
Of love and wisdom burning,
Till twilight melt in golden day
At our dear Lord's returning.

Amen.

The same yesterday, to-day and for ever.—Hebrews xiii. 8.

THE Lord Who led His people
Upon their trackless way
With light from heaven in darkness
And with a cloud by day,
Who, when the morning wakened
Had laid Assyria low,
Who broke with blare of trumpet
The wall of Jericho.

That Lord in strength endureth
As in the days of old,
For not by wonders only
The wonderful is told ;
He makes the Southern desert
To blossom as the rose,
He sets His church bells ringing
Across the Northern snows.

He gathers of His people
As countless as the sand
From heritage of martyrs,
From prophets' promised land ;

In tumult of the cities,
Where giant waters fall
To the assembly solemn
His silver trumpets call.

He gathers and He scatters
To outposts of the Cross,
To blessed homes of England,
Where lonely oceans toss ;
Back to waste fields whose story
Still haunts us as we come
To see the drooping pennon,
To hear the muffled drum.

Till in His vast communion
He thousands holds as one
With the imperial vision
His never-setting sun.
Then to the organ swelling,
Let psalms melodious flow,
And strike the sounding cymbals
Like Miriam long ago.

Praise Him, the Lord of distance
At hand, on land, or sea,
Lord of our rest or travel,
Or port where we would be.

Lord of the wild waves silenced
Around the fishing ships,
Yea, Lord of the harpers harping
In John's Apocalypse. Amen.

FATHER, see Thy children gathered
From afar to seek Thy Face,
With one voice to praise and bless
Thee

For our heritage of grace.
Long-lived words of prayer unite us,
Hallow'd hymn, and glorious Creed,—
For Thy Spirit's benediction
Here unitedly we plead.

Grant a fuller, clearer vision,
Of Thy Christ to every heart,
Quickening us for His glad service
Where we work and watch apart.

Everywhere His Cross uplifted !
Everywhere His flag unfurled !
Keep our Church a faithful witness
To Thy truth throughout the world.

Patient toil, and high endeavour,
Weakness leaning on Thy might,
Walking through earth's mists and darkness

As the children of the light ;
Hearts on fire with Thy great message—

Love that pardons, grace that frees—

True to Thee, and to each other,
Clasping hands across the seas.

Amen.

The Central Church Committee

FOR DEFENCE and INSTRUCTION.

Chairman - THE LORD ASHCOMBE.

The Committee, as the body specially charged with the duty of spreading a sound knowledge of the origin, history, and work of the Church, and of organising in defence of her secular interests, earnestly appeal for SUBSCRIPTIONS, DONATIONS, and OFFERTORIES to enable them adequately to comply with the demands made upon them throughout the country for speakers, organisers, lecturers, publications, advice, and information, &c., in connection with the Education and Disestablishment controversies.

ADDITIONAL FUNDS for these purposes are much needed, and CONTRIBUTIONS of whatever amount will be most thankfully received by the Bankers, Messrs. HOARE & CO., 37 Fleet Street, E.C., or by

T. MARTIN TILBY, Secretary.

Offices—Church House, Westminster, S.W.

Society for the Propagation of the Gospel in Foreign Parts.

15 Tufton Street, Westminster, S.W.

Incorporated by Royal Charter, June 16, 1701.

THE Society claims to be "the Handmaid of the Church." With the exception of the Falkland Islands, every Colony of the Empire has at some time or other received its aid. While from the first it has had direct Missions to the Heathen the Society has adopted "the surer way of building up the Colonial Churches as Missionary centres." As a result, there are now organised self-supporting Churches in the United States, Canada, Africa, the West Indies, Australia, and New Zealand, which are, in turn, helping in the evangelisation of the world.

In 207 years it has expended £7,660,884. At the present moment the Society is maintaining 847 ordained Missionaries, who are teaching the One Faith in 54 languages in 56 dioceses.

As the Colonies increase in wealth and power, the Society withdraws its help. About one-fourth of the Society's funds is spent on our Christian Colonists, the rest is spent on the conversion of the heathen both within and without the British Empire.

Help is urgently needed for the immediate development of Medical Missions and for a great extension of the work in Western Canada, India, Burma, etc.

Clergy or Laymen may qualify for election as Incorporated Members by an Annual Subscription of £1 ls. or £10 10s. Donation for Life Membership.

All Communications should be addressed to the Secretary, S.P.G., 15 Tufton Street, Westminster, S.W. Remittances should be made payable to "The Treasurers of S.P.G." Cheques Postal Orders, etc., to be crossed "Messrs. Drummond."

288,000 Immigrants entered Canada in 1907, of whom 159,000 were British. The Canadian Church is helpless before such annual invasions, spread over districts many times the size of England. Large numbers of these are many miles from any means of Grace. The

COLONIAL AND CONTINENTAL CHURCH SOCIETY,

9 SERJEANTS' INN, FLEET STREET, E.C., has set on foot a Special Fund of £42,000, towards which £17,000 has already been subscribed.

The ARCHBISHOP OF CANTERBURY says:—"Never has the Church had a more inspiring call."

The ARCHBISHOP OF RUPERTSLAND says:—"It is an unparalleled crisis."

£50 will put up a first little wooden Church. £20 will pay for the passage and outfit of a worker. £35 will build him a shack. £30 a year for four years will train a student for the Ministry. £80 a year will keep a Catechist in the field.

"The main agency by which the Church of the English nation tries to do its duty to the sailors of all nations."—BISHOP OF STEPNEY.

The Lambeth Conference of Bishops, 1897, resolved :

"That it is the duty of the Church to aid in providing for the Moral and Spiritual needs of our Seamen of the Mercantile Service . . . by the ministrations of Clergy specially set apart for this work."

This Church Society provides 270 Seamen's Chaplains, Lay Readers, Institute Keepers, Boatmen, etc., with Seamen's Churches and Institutes in 93 Ports situated in nearly every seaboard diocese in the world.

During recent years the Missions to Seamen has largely extended its work for Sailors in Colonial and Foreign Ports; Funds are urgently needed to maintain and strengthen these extensions, and to open New Stations at Bombay, Alexandria, Brisbane, and Argentine Ports.

What more fitting object for Pan-Anglican Thankofferings than work for God amongst Sailors, the truest Missionaries and the men who make the Pan-Anglican Congress possible by bringing its members from every corner of the world?

STUART C. KNOX, Secretary.

THE British & Foreign Bible Society

President—THE MARQUIS OF NORTHAMPTON.

The Vice-Presidents include the Archbishops of Canterbury, York, Armagh, Sydney, and the West Indies, and 42 Bishops of the Anglican Communion.

The Society exists solely to translate and disseminate the Holy Scriptures.

Its list of versions now includes 105 Bibles, 99 completed New Testaments, and at least one Book of Scripture in 208 other languages.

It has in progress translations or revisions in over 100 different languages. Several hundred missionaries and linguists are engaged in this work, under the Society's auspices, and mainly at its expense.

In England and Wales it provides the Scriptures—free, or under cost price—to Sunday Schools, Home Missions, Theological Colleges, Hospitals, Asylums, Orphanages, and similar religious and philanthropic institutions.

Throughout the British Colonies it organises the distribution of the Scriptures at the same uniform cheap price. It supplies immigrants with books in their own languages, and maintains extensive stocks in numerous depôts throughout the world.

It is the great source of supply of Foreign Missions.

Almost all the Scriptures used by the C.M.S., the S.P.G., the Universities' Mission to Central Africa, the South American Missionary Society, the Anglican New Guinea Mission, and the Melanesian Mission are sent out, carriage paid, to the most remote Mission stations, on such terms that they entail practically no cost to the Mission, and are within the reach of the poorest of the people.

To carry on its work, the Society needs contributions and gifts amounting to £150,000 a year.

400,000 HELPED IN ONE YEAR.

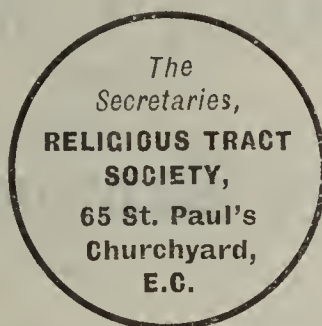

THE = = = = GREATEST NATION IN THE WORLD =

We are accustomed to say that the sun never sets on the British Empire; and that is true. But, judged by population, natural resources, and homogeneity of race, China is the greatest nation in the world. The Religious Tract Society asks for £20,000

= for China =

to be used in the distribution of distinctively Christian literature. At first the sum proposed was £10,000, but at the request of a friend specially interested in China who promised £1,000, it was enlarged to £20,000. China is eagerly reaching out her hands for Western learning and Western science. These, without the Gospel, will make her a curse to herself and humanity. China, as in a special sense a literary nation, may most effectively be won for Christ by literature. Please send your donations to—

THE ARCHBISHOP OF CANTERBURY, writing in support of the Appeal, says:

"I yield to none in my appreciation of the admirable work which has been done by the Religious Tract Society in the circulation of good and wholesome literature. I am very glad to know that attention is this year to be prominently called to the results which have followed in the Chinese Empire from what your Society has been enabled there to do. Without the aid of some such organisation as yours it would be impossible to bring good Western literature of a definitely Christian sort within the reach of great multitudes in the Far East, and the opportunities of to-day are very much greater than was the case in former years. With all my heart do I wish success to every wise and well-directed endeavour in a matter of such vast moment."

Seven Reasons for Supporting The Church Pastoral-Aid Society.

1. Because it is quite definitely a Missionary Society, working in the Factory Towns, the Colliery Districts, and the Slums, and wherever the bulk of the population are not yet won for Christ, seeking to gain those who are at present careless of the Gospel of Salvation.

2. Because it is so careful in the choice of its workers, taking great pains to employ only men and women of proved spirituality, of tried capacity, who are thoroughly loyal to the Church System and the Reformation Settlement.

3. Because its method is so practical. It seeks to use the existing parochial system of the Church, and to make it efficient by providing sufficient workers of the right sort for our great town parishes.

4. Because its work is so great. One-fifth of the population of England, and one-fourth of the population of Wales, live in the parishes to which the Society makes grants.

5. Because a great extension of the work is imperatively needed. 75 parishes accepted by the Committee are now waiting for help. Very few of our slum parishes are yet adequately manned. On the fringe of all our great cities new working-class suburbs are springing up. "There remaineth yet very much land to be possessed."

6. Because if the work at home fails, there will be neither men nor money for the work abroad. When the heart is weak, all the members suffer.

7. Because souls are perishing whom Christ died to save.

In the Report of the Pan-Anglican Conference on Missions to Jews, 1897, it says:

"The Jews seem to deserve more attention from us than they have hitherto received. The difficulties of the work of converting the Jews are very great, but the greatest of all difficulties springs from the indifference of Christians to the duty of bringing them to Christ. They are the Lord's own kin, and He commanded that the Gospel should first be preached to them."

THE SOCIETY FOR PROMOTING CHRISTIAN KNOWLEDGE.

FOUNDED 1698.

The Society during the twelve months ending September 30, 1907, made grants as follows:

£31,155 towards Church Work Abroad, including the Building of Churches and Schools, the Endowment of Bishoprics, the Training of Theological Students and Natives for the Ministry, the Maintenance, &c., of Medical Missions, and the Archbishop's Assyrian Mission.

N.B.—At least three Churches were built with the Society's aid every week of the year.

£7,000 towards Church Work at Home, including the Building of Sunday Schools and Mission Rooms, Training Colleges for Lay-workers, School-mistresses, &c.

£2,500 in support of the Society's work for the Spiritual Care of Emigrants.

£12,000 in Grants of Books, &c., both at Home and Abroad.

Altogether about £52,655 were voted from the Society's funds, and the liability for grants promised amounted to upwards of £82,000.

The Society is almost entirely dependent upon Voluntary sources of Income.

The Treasurers earnestly appeal for additional Subscriptions, Donations. Church Collections, and Legacies, so that the Society may be able to maintain and to extend its work.

Communications should be addressed "The Secretaries," S.P.C.K. House, Northumberland Avenue, London, W.C.

N.B.—Cheques and P.O.O.'s should be made payable to the Accountant, Mr. H. EDWARD SCOTT.

Cheques should be crossed "Barclay & Co., Limited, Gosling's Branch," and Post Office Orders made payable at the General Post Office.

Poor Clergy Relief Corporation

ESTABLISHED 1856.

INCORPORATED 1867.

Office: 38 TAVISTOCK PLACE, TAVISTOCK SQUARE, W.C.

President: THE BISHOP OF LONDON.

THIS CORPORATION gives immediate assistance in money and clothing to the poorer Clergy of England, Wales, Ireland, and the Colonies, their Widows and Orphan Daughters, in times of sickness, bereavement, or other temporary distress.

The Committee meet twice in each month, to consider the cases brought before them, and to make grants. They are guided solely in their decision by the Want and Worth of the applicant.

The Corporation has, to May 1908, aided more than 27,000 cases of clerical distress with grants ranging from £5 to £75, in addition to gifts of clothing, blankets, and other household requisites.

Secretary: MANDEVILLE B. PHILLIPS.

HELP IS EARNESTLY ASKED.

The Lay Evangelist Brotherhood of St. Philip, WHITMORE HALL, WOLVERHAMPTON.

Visitor - - - The Lord Bishop of Lichfield.

THE EVANGELIST BROTHERHOOD is a society of Laymen. Its object is to help the Mission Work of the Church, at Home, in the Colonies, and amongst the Heathen by aggressive Evangelistic efforts. IT IS ENTIRELY DEPENDENT UPON VOLUNTARY SUPPORT. The Brotherhood welcomes men from any rank of life, but no difference is made, all are equal; it is a democratic society. No member of the Brotherhood is sent into a parish to work until he has had at least twelve months' training at headquarters.

Help is urgently needed to extend the work of the Brothers.

Cheques and Postal Orders should be made payable to the Evangelist Brotherhood and sent to the Secretary.

SUNDAY LAY MOVEMENT.

THIS Movement was founded in 1901 by Mr. THOMAS KINGSCOTE, M.V.O., in conjunction with a small Committee of personal friends, adopting as its Charter the following Resolution :

“Believing, as we do, that the great principles which underlie the due observance of Sunday are Public Worship and Rest, we resolve to do all that we can to discourage, as far as possible, such employments on Sundays as would prevent either ourselves, our servants, or others for whom we are responsible, from being able to carry out these principles.”

The Movement relies mainly on Personal Influence and Personal Example.

It includes Anglicans, Roman Catholics, and Nonconformists, and has Members and Associates in 3,000 towns and villages in the United Kingdom, and in many foreign and distant lands.

For particulars of Membership, etc., apply to Mrs. MARY HICKSON, Hon. Secretary.

Miss E. CANTLOW, Editorial Secretary.

Miss E. PAGE, Office Secretary.

Objects of the Society.

TO maintain children orphaned by the Massacres. To make the Armenian Widows self-supporting by disposing of their work, a large quantity of which is always on view.

The poverty of the peasants caused by the exorbitant taxation and cruel oppression resulted in a smaller area being sown last season, and this, combined with other causes, has so increased the Cost of living that many of the Orphanages are being closed.

If any are to remain open Increased Funds are urgently needed.

The Missionaries speak of the imploring looks of the girls as they plead with tears to be allowed to remain, and say that "those who had not yet been dismissed acted like sheep ready for the slaughter as they beheld their companions going."

And this was one of our brightest orphanages !

Funds can be safely and speedily forwarded through Hector Munro Ferguson, Esq., Hon. Treasurer, "Friends of Armenia," 47 Victoria Street, Westminster, S.W. Cheques to be crossed "London and Westminster Bank."

NO AGENTS EMPLOYED.

THE HOMES OF HOPE,

4, 5 & 6 Regent Square, Gray's Inn Road, London, W.C.

ARE FOR FIRST FALLEN YOUNG WOMEN, and are carrying on a valuable maternity work amongst those who have taken the one false step. Many lives are being prevented from entering upon a career of continuous shame and sorrow.

Money is most urgently wanted, and unless funds are forthcoming this good and Merciful work will be brought to a standstill!

Contributions may be sent to Secretary at above address, or to the Treasurer—

Church Penitentiary Association.

THIS great effort of the Anglican Church to promote Penitentiary and Rescue Work has in union with it 135 Houses of Mercy and Refuges in various parts of the Empire.

Help is urgently needed for carrying on and expanding the work.

Grants formerly made at the rate of £2 per head have this year been reduced to 12s. 6d. owing to the falling off of subscribers and legacies, and to the increase of the work.

The number of cases assisted since the commencement of the Association in 1851 exceeds 96,000.

Advice and help in Rescue Cases are given to all who apply.

A Free Register is kept of workers and posts vacant.

Contributions should be sent to

ESTABLISHED
1846.

THE LEADING NEWSPAPER FOR CHURCHMEN & CHURCHWOMEN.

FOUNDED by Dean Church and other well-known leaders of the Oxford Movement, at a critical period in the history of the Church of England, "THE GUARDIAN" has endeavoured, with conspicuous success, to present a complete and careful record of every manifestation of Church life and energy. Its articles on political and current topics command respect, while Educational matters find a place in its columns second only to those of the Church. The high level of the literary pages of "THE GUARDIAN" is recognised generally, particular attention being devoted to reviews of Theological, Historical and Scientific Works, Fiction, Travel, &c. Music and the Fine Arts are also dealt with by able critics.

"THE GUARDIAN" is issued every Wednesday, price 3d. by post 3½d., and is supplied to Subscribers at 3s. 9d. for three months; 7s. 6d. six months; 15s. per annum. To Subscribers abroad, 17s. per annum.

It may also be obtained from any Newsagent.

THEOLOGY.

Churchpeople's attention is drawn to these amongst many other theological books:—"The Religion and Worship of the Synagogue," by G. H. Box and W. O. E. Oesterley; "The Future Life and Modern Difficulties," and "The Church in Modern England," both by F. C. Kempson; "Modernism," by A. L. Lilley; "The Evolution of the Messianic Idea," by W. O. E. Oesterley; "The Miracles of Jesus," and "The Parables of Jesus," both by the Bishop of Stepney. For other theological books write for Catalogue [N].

SHORTHAND

AND COMMERCIAL.

A complete exposition of the system of shorthand in general use throughout the English-speaking world is given in "Pitman's Shorthand Instructor." Their "Primer of Book-keeping," "Manual of Business Training," "Business Man's Guide," and "Commercial Correspondence," to mention only a few of Pitman's numerous and well-known business books, will be found useful.

Write for Catalogues, [B] Commercial, [G] Business Handbooks, [H] Shorthand, [L] Law.

EDUCATIONAL.

The following educational books—a brief, but scarcely typical selection from a large number—may be of interest. "Education and Social Life," by Dr. Wilson Harper; "Astronomy for Everybody," by Professor Newcombe; "Sophocles" and "Aeschylus," both translated by Dean Plumptre; "An Elementary History SourceBook," "Notes of Lessons on Hygiene and Temperance," "Notes of Lessons on Science," "Notes of Lessons on Geography," "Notes of Lessons on Arithmetic." For complete lists of Pitman's educational books write for Catalogues [C], [D], [F] and [K].

GENERAL.

The publishers desire to draw special attention to their list of carefully classified Catalogues, any of which may be obtained post free on application. Catalogue [A] contains a complete descriptive list of all Pitman's books. Their Spring and Autumn Lists, and also "The Bookshelf," a periodical relating to newly published works, will be forwarded post free on receipt of a postcard, and prospectuses may be obtained of most books published by Pitman's.

AN INVITATION.

Sir Isaac Pitman and Sons, Ltd., cordially invite all delegates to the Pan-Anglican Congress to pay a visit to their show-room (entrance 14 Warwick Lane, one minute from St. Paul's Cathedral), where they may examine at their leisure a complete set of this firm's publications. No books can be bought there, but orders, if desired, can be executed through a bookseller.

“HEALTHY BOYHOOD.”

FOR PARENTS, CLERGYMEN, SCHOOLMASTERS, &c.

By Arthur Trewby, M.A.

Introduction by Sir DYCE DUCKWORTH; Foreword by LORD ROBERTS. 2nd Thousand.
Used in 230 Public and Preparatory Schools, and in the Royal Navy.

A FEW PRESS OPINIONS.

Standard.—“Every parent should buy this little book.”

Liverpool Courier.—“A little volume which we desire very earnestly to recommend.”

Times.—“A valuable little book on purity of habits, dealing with the subject in a plain-spoken, judicious manner.”

Lancet.—“We could wish a boy entering his public school no better present, and it should be welcome to many parents.”

Good Health.—“The writer has handled his subject with tact nothing short of marvellous. He understands boy nature.”

Guardian.—“This little book treats its painful subject with the utmost delicacy, yet with absolute frankness, being, in fact, written for boys to read, that they may take warning, and also receive some thoroughly practical counsels.”

British Medical Journal.—“There appears to be a growing body of opinion in favour of the careful instruction of growing boys in the facts of sexual life by parents or guardians, instead of allowing them to pick up this knowledge haphazard from usually impure schoolfellows. Those who take this view will find this difficult task done for them with much tact and delicacy in this little book.”

Glasgow Herald.—“The purpose has been admirably carried out with a clearness of description, and at the same time a dignity and restraint, that warrant one in recommending it to the parent, guardian, or teacher interested in the protection of the young life from impure habit.”

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION.

Crown 8vo. Pp. 222. Price 1s. net.

THE GUARDIAN.—"It will not be necessary to tell the readers of 'The Training of the Twig' that Mr. Drawbridge has a good deal to say about religious education which is well worth reading. His present book possesses features of considerable interest to clergymen, teachers, and parents. In the present stage of the education controversy the book has a good chance of receiving deserved attention."

AMERICAN CHURCH SUNDAY-SCHOOL MAGAZINE.—"Of practical interest to every Sunday-school worker. Wherever we have read we have learned. The volume is well written."

THE TRAINING OF THE TWIG.

Crown 8vo. Pp. 200. (Twentieth Thousand.) Price 6d. net.

THE CHURCH FAMILY NEWSPAPER.—"We have read it from the first to the last page with the keenest and ever-increasing interest. And in the case of teachers, parents, clergy . . . we can give them no better advice than to obtain the book, carefully peruse, enjoy, and profit by it, as we hope we have done."

THE CHURCH STANDARD (U.S.A.).—"It would be difficult to find a book of practical pedagogy which should condense so many useful hints as this does for the training and teaching of children, and yet should treat them all with clearness and simplicity."

OLD BELIEFS & NEW KNOWLEDGE.

Crown 8vo. Pp. xii + 178. Price 1s. 6d. net.

THE GUARDIAN.—"We should confidently place this little book in the hands of anyone who was sincerely perplexed by the modern environment of religion. We can assure our readers that they will rarely read what he has to say without obtaining real practical help in the elucidation of difficulties."

IS RELIGION UNDERMINED?

Crown 8vo. Pp. x + 238. Price 1s. net.

THE MORNING POST.—"In style, matter, and temper it is a model of what popular apologetic should be."

LINCOLN DIOCESAN MAGAZINE.—"One of the most helpful works we have met with for a long time."

OXFORD DIOCESAN MAGAZINE.—"We strongly recommend the book to anyone who has in any way thought deeply of the great subjects with which it deals in so admirable a fashion."

LONGMANS, GREEN & Co., 39 Paternoster Row, London, E.C.

THE MEDICI SERIES OF COLOURED REPRODUCTIONS AFTER THE OLD MASTERS.

1. The Medici Plates are the product of a new photographic process which for the first time gives literal replicas of colour as well as form without the intervention of any "screen."

2. The Medici Plates are printed on the finest plate paper, without glazing, loading or chalk coating, the surface will not, therefore, crumble nor will the colours "fly" on exposure to light.

3. The Medici Plates are literal reproductions of the original subjects, with all imperfections as they exist at this day.

A Full Prospectus of this Series giving details of Publication, Subscription, how Copies may be seen on inspection at any address in the United Kingdom, and all other information, will be sent post free on application.

THE
COMMENTARY

To be completed in Twelve Volumes.

THE great majority of clergymen, pressed by ever-increasing parochial demands, are finding it more and more difficult to devote the necessary time to the most important one of the preparation of sermons. And they are further handicapped by the fact that most works existing for their help are practically useless, having been rendered obsolete by modern thought and the altered form of present-day preaching. Hence, they have long demanded a work that will give Real Help—one that is parallel with the spiritual trend of the times. Such a work is forthcoming in THE CHURCH PULPIT COMMENTARY.

The STANDARD says:

"It seems to us that a man must be absolutely unfit for the pulpit if he cannot with such volumes at his elbow preach acceptably."

THE GOSPEL OF PAIN. By THOMAS J. HARDY.

A small volume which will be found to give with much eloquence and the weight of experience the witness of suffering to a larger life. The object of the writer is to show that suffering is less a field for the exercise of philosophic speculation than the common and central ground of life itself, where alone may be found an indication of life's purpose, and consequently of its conduct.
